INSTRUCTIONS FOR CONTRIBUTORS

European Journal of Musculoskeletal Diseases an international, peer-reviewed journal focusing on the intrinsic diseases, therapies, predictors and management of musculoskeletal diseases. This journal, published every six months, will be a new interdisciplinary journal that will be focused on publishing all new discoveries on diagnostic, clinical and therapeutic topics about rheumatic, orthopedic, muscle, joint and bone diseases with sections of rheumatology, clinical immunology, orthopedics, endocrinology pain medicine, sports medicine, physical rehabilitation and imaging. Only articles written in English will be published. All articles will be subject to peer review and the scientific standard is the only criterion for accepting a manuscript for publication. The style should be clear and concise. Excessive use of jargon or unusual abbreviations should be avoided. Contributors must send an electronic copy of the text, tables and figures to eujomd@gmail.com and it is essential that they retain a copy of the original manuscript as the Editor does not accept responsibility for loss of papers submitted. Papers are accepted on the understanding that no substantial part has been, or will be published elsewhere, and once they have been accepted they remain the copyright of the journal.

The journal's website: <http://www.biolfesas.org>

Preparation of the text: Manuscripts should be in a Word file with double spacing and 30 mm margins all around. The first page should bear the title of the paper, last name(s) and initial(s) of the author(s) with their affiliation(s) and the postal address, tel. and fax numbers and e-mail address of the corresponding author. For indexing purposes a small number of key words should be supplied.

Generally, papers should be divided into the following parts and in the order indicated: (1) Summary: about 5% of the length of the paper; (2) Introduction: containing the reason for doing the work; (3) Materials and Methods: sufficient information must be included to permit repetition of the experimental work; (4) Results: these should be given concisely together with tables and figures that have clear legends; (5) Discussion: the presentation of results should be separate from a discussion of their significance; the section should not repeat Results; (6) Acknowledgements if any; (7) References: these should be cited in the text by a number in parentheses and listed at the end of the paper in numerical order. Note the following style for journal and book citations:

1. Autorino R, Lamendola MG, De Luca G, De Sio M, Giuliano F, D' Armiento M, De Placido S, Conti P, Di Lorenzo G. Neuroendocrine immunophenotype as predictor of clinical recurrence in 110 patients with prostate cancer. Int J Immunopathol Pharmacol 2007; 20:765-70.
2. Robb RJ, Lin Y. T-cell growth factor purification, interaction with a cellular receptor and in vitro synthesis. In Thymic Hormones and Lymphokines. A.L. Goldstein, ed. Plenum Publishing Corp. New York, 1984; p. 274.

Abbreviation of titles of Journals should follow the list of journals indexed in INDEX MEDICUS.

References to books should include the editor(s), publisher and place of publication. Authors are responsible for the accuracy of their references.

Illustrations: The Journal recognizes the adoption of the SI unit system. All tables and figures should be cited in order in the text, using Roman numerals for the tables and Arabic numerals for figures. Tables should have a short title. Figures can be sent on a separate PDF or jpg file bearing the first author's name.

Proof-reading: Page proofs will be submitted to the contributors for minor corrections and should be returned to the Editor within three days. Major alterations from the text cannot be accepted.

Editorial correspondence: All manuscripts, letters to the Editor, Editorial matters including advertising, back numbers and requests for reprints, should be sent to the Editor-in-Chief: Prof. Alberto Migliore, San Pietro Fatebenefratelli Hospital, Via Cassia 600, 00189 Rome, Italy.
